Job Description

Role Purpose

To assist teachers, specialists and relevant colleagues in the provision and maintenance of high-quality support for students, with an additional responsibility for delivering personal care/medical support. To work under the direction of class teachers and specialist practitioners to ensure that students with additional learning needs (ALS) and/or special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND) can access their classroom learning and benefit fully from their experience at College. To focus on enabling students to complete a course of study with a measurably greater degree of independence and autonomy than when they started. To assist in ensuring that the records of the support delivered to students are accurate and comply with funding regulations.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

1. To deliver support to students with physical disabilities and medical needs. This will include but is not limited to, mobility, toileting, feeding and practical assistance.
2. To use specialist equipment for the safe moving and handling of people and to administer medication if required (full training is provided). Other specialist training may be provided depending on students' individual requirements, which could include physiotherapy and the use of medical equipment.
3. To adhere to student personal care plans and to report any adjustments to the Practitioner.
4. To support students with a range of additional learning needs (ALS) and or physical disabilities and/or challenges, under the direction of the teacher in the classroom, workshop, or other education environment. To support students on a one-one basis and in small groups, as directed by the teacher.
5. To understand and implement Education, Health Care Plans (EHCPs), in collaboration with teachers and relevant specialist practitioners, to ensure the support delivered to students is appropriate for their needs and is enabling their progress within lessons and towards their intended outcomes.
6. To support teachers in ensuring that all students are aware of the lesson objectives.
7. To encourage students to interact with others and engage in activities led by the teacher.
8. To support students in gaining self-confidence through encouragement and reassurance. To use support strategies, as directed by the class teacher and/or specialist staff, that facilitate independence, enable access to learning and integration into the life of the College.
9. To enable students to develop their ability to learn by supporting their reading, writing, comprehension, and notetaking. To support students to process information using a range of strategies as directed by the teacher; this will include breaking down complex information into more manageable chunks and encouraging students to practice new information to strengthen memory connections.
10. To support students with the use of Information Technology (IT) and educational aids such as computers, video, communication devices under supervision as required.
11. To ensure that there are accurate records of the support delivered to students and that these are completed regularly on the appropriate College systems.
12. To act as a key link between teachers and support services to ensure all relevant staff are aware of student support needs and the progress students are making.

13. To seek advice and guidance from teachers and specialist staff as and when required.
14. To be responsible for updating your timetable and ensuring the information held is correct.
15. To attend staff meetings about students for whom you provide support, as directed by your line manager.
16. To carry out examination invigilation duties as required.
